Easter service was held in the M. E. Church Sunday. Rev. Z. Webster delivered two excellent sermons to a large audience. Special music was rendered by the choir and the church was beautifully trimmed for the occasion with Easter plants.

Fruit Outlook Good

Local fruit growers feel very much encouraged by the outlook, and should no late frosts come the crops of apples, pears and peaches should be fine. The oldest growers say the conditions were never better at this time of the year. With a mild winter and the character of the early spring the trees have blossomed soon and freely. An examination of some peach orchards reveals that from seventy-five to eighty percentum of the blossoms are fertile. Heretofore they have learned that if forty percentum of the blossoms were fertile at this time of the year good crops were assured. Thus the expectation is for a banner crop.

Meeting to Discuss Fruit Packages

The State Board of Agriculture has called a meeting of farmers, to be held in the State House on Thursday, May 1, at 10.30 A. M. to discuss the subject of fruit and vegetable packages.

The meeting will be addressed by Mr. J. F. Deasy, who has been appointed by the United States Railroad Administration, Committee on Packing, Containers and Prevention of Loss and Damage as Chairman of a Sub-Committee covering the States of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia, for the purpose of the standardization of containers used for the shipment of freight.

In view of the existence in these states of a number of laws bearing upon this subject, the United States law and the rules of regulation of railroad and other administrators the subject is one of vital importance to all farmers and no doubt the meeting will be largely attended.

Everybody who is interested is invited to attend and to take part in the discussion.

Croix De Guerre To Wilkie

Herbert M. Wilkie, son of the Rev. William J. Wilkie, of Quakertown, has received the Croix de Guerre. The unit of which he is a member, S. S. U. 646, has recently received the honor of a divisional citation.

Mr. Wilkie joined the Red Cross service early in 1917 and during October of the same year enlisted in the United States Ambulance Service. His work was largely in the Soissons sector. The personal ciation follows in part:

"Herbert Wilkie, a driver in the S. S. U. 646 in the course of the attack of October 17 to 25 about Beaurepaire gave proof of great energy and a splendid contempt for danger in evacuating the wounded, both by night and day, from advanced poste de secours and by very difficult roads under constant fire from the enemy artillery.

WANTED—Three small farms; moderate prices. Give full particulars. Address S. B. A. this office.

MAY BE FOOD CENTER

Strong sentiment against a proposal for the farmers in this and surrounding districts to ship their products to New York markets in motor trucks to the exclusion of Philadelphia was expressed at a meeting here Monday night. The meeting was called as an open forum to debate the subject and the hall was crowded to capacity with delegates from all the surrounding districts in Delaware and Maryland.

Mark Mullen, superintendent of the rural motor parcels post system, and E. F. Roberson, of the Postal Department at Washington, took issue with several New York commission men present in an effort to persuade the farmers that they could ship their products with greater facility and less expense to the New York markets.

Both officials were emphatic in their declaration that Philadelphia offered by far the more logical place for marketing goods from this section. The concensus of opinion among the attending farmers appeared to be equally positive in this respect.

It was also announced during the meeting that, according to information recently received here, there was a plan on foot in Philadelphia to establish five community centres in the city, where the farmers could dispose of their products direct to the consumer, thus eliminating the commission man. This plan would enable the people to save from 25 to 30 per cent. on the amount of their food bills, it was declared.

That the sentiment of the farmers was strongly in favor of the community centre plan was indicated by the fact that they appointed a committee to investigate the plan to lend its advice and co-operation to those behind it.

CENTURY CLUB NOTES

On Tuesday last the members of the Club were most pleasantly entertained by an instrumental solo, "The Rosary," also a vocal solo, "In Gay Paris."

The very pretty mahogany candle sticks presented by Mrs. William D. Bradford were placed on the artistic mantlepiece of the committee-room and a hearty vote of thanks sent to the donor.

Mrs. Boyer, of Smyrna, gave a very clear and concise talk to the ladies about senorship of the moving picture films for Delaware, a work that is to cooperate, so that we will have the best movies for everyone.

On Tuesday, April 29th, our State chairman of music, Mrs. Griffith, will be with us and also a soloist, Miss Kisler; they will furnish us with a pleasing program for that afternoon; having had Mrs. Griffith with us before we know what a treat is in store for us.

On Saurday, May 3d, at 2 p. m. there will be a "Novelty Auction Sale," held by the members of the club, and there will be most anything there you can think of—useful things for the home; things to eat, such a cake, &c.; things that will please everyone. Come and join, there will be lots of fun. Mr. W. Harman Reynolds will call sale.

BETHESDA CHURCH NOTES

Sunday, April 27th, 1919.

9.30 A. M. The Brotherhood meeting will be in charge of Brother Eugene Dockety. Don't miss this splendid Sunday morning meeting. It is worth your while to be present.

10.30 A. M. Morning worship with sermon by Rev. Dr. Moore of Baltimore, Md. Dr. Moore is connected with our great Centenary Movement, and is working in the Washington Area. It is a delight to hear him on this great subject. The Centenary Movement is the greatest plan of work for God's Kingdom that the world has ever known, and our Church has selected its best men for the bringing of the information and education to our people. There will be no collection.

2.00 P. M. Sunday School. Our school is weekly growing in interest. The Easter program given last Sunday was fine. And everyone enjoyed it. Over 100 present. Lets make it 125 next Sunday. Come and bring the children.

7.30 P. M. Evening Worship with sermon by the Pastor. Special music at each service. A cordial welcome awaits you all.

Prayer meeting each Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

War Train Opens Loan Drive

There was a large gathering at the station last Monday to see the war train. The exhibit was worth seeing and the speakers were most convincing.

There was also a most inspiring open air meeting Wednesday evening, at which the Fort DuPont band furnished the music. The report of the sale of Victory Bonds for the first week is very good which goes to show that the people of Middletown are not going to show a yellow streak at this stage of the game. Button! button! who's NOT got the button?

Victory Loan Campaign On

The Woman's Liberty Loan Committee of New Castle County started with a great deal of enthusiasm Monday morning. The trophy train coming to Newark then on to Delaware City, Townsend and Middletown made the Victory Loan seem very real. The train was splendid, wonderful war trophies and inspiring speaking. At all stops it was met by great cheering crowds at well decorated stations. Lots of bonds were sold. The "Price of Peace" the war film is being received by large audiences wherever it is shown. Meetings with music and speaking are being held all over the county.

MRS. W. B. JESTER,
Pub. Chairman of New Castle County.

Ennis—Gallagher Wedding

Mr. L. Edward Ennis, son of Mrs. Bradford Ennis, of Smyrna, and Miss Clara L. Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Gallagher, both of this town, were quietly married at St. Anne's Rectory, by Rev. P. L. Donaghay, Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock.

The couple were attended by Miss Odel R. Gallagher, sister of the bride and Mr. Bradford Ennis, of Smyrna, brother of the groom.

The bride was becomingly attired in a blue travelling suit, with black maline hat and carried sweet peas.

On their return from a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Ennis will reside in this town.

Canal Work to Start

Plans are being made to start work on the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, the canal having recently become the property of the United States Government. The U. S. Engineering Department propose making it a sea-level canal with a depth of 12 feet. It is said two years steady work will be required to complete the work.

ST. ANNE'S CHURCH NOTES

EPISCOPAL

Sunday, April 27th, 1919. First Sunday after Easter.

Services: 10.30, Morning Prayer and Sermon.

11.45, Sunday School session.

7.30, Evensong and address.

An ideal Easter Day and everything combined this year to make the Festival even more than usually helpful and inspiring. The day began with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 A. M., at which twelve people received the sacrament. At 10.30 the church was filled, and the whole service was beautiful and uplifting. There were 92 communicants. The offering was asked for the General Fund of the Parish and was with one exception of years ago, the largest offering in years. The evening service was devoted especially to the children of the Sunday School, there being recitations and the presentation of the Mite Box Offering, the total amount of which will be given next week. We heard many expressions of pleasure at the wonderfully beautiful services and music which shall long be remembered. But the best thing about the day was the earnest and devout participation of the people in its worship, and the opportunity for many to meet with one another.

Eastertide! Easter, what a joy the word connotes over all the world. No other word carries anything like the same spiritual significance as this. The Christmas spirit draws men closer together in fellowship, but the Easter spirit draws them closer to God. It is a happy day, placed in a happy time of the year. Its highest note is the note of worship, and worship itself in its highest note. No christian could wilfully absent himself from the "Lamb's High Feast" and not be the poorer for it all his days. There are, after all, comparatively few Easters any of us have, when one considers that Easter's full participation does not come until one is confirmed, and the eventualities of life inevitably rob us of some, and that before we know it the evening of lite is upon us. We therefore are thankful to have had the privilege of spending such a happy Easter Day with you all.

"Tis the spring of souls today;
Christ has burst His prison,
And from three day's sleep in death,
As the sun hath risen;
All the winter of our sins;
Long and dark, is flying
From His light, to whom we give Laud and praise undying."

WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN ELECTED FOR THE ENSUING YEAR.

At the annual Parish and Vestry meeting held in the Parish House on Easter Monday, April 21st, the following gentlemen were elected to serve in St. Anne's Parish for the ensuing year: Jefferson B. Foard, Senior Warden; James Gaylord Bragdon, Junior Warden. Vestrymen: Frederick Brady, William G. Lockwood, Joseph Biggs, Joseph Hanson, George V. Peverley, William D. Bradford, Benjamin Gibbs.

A meeting of the newly elected vestry will be held at the Rectory on Monday evening, April 28th, at 7.30, at which delegates to the Annual Diocesan Convention, to be held on May 14th, at St. Luke's Church, Seaford, Del., will be elected.

We wish to thank all those who so kindly loaned their flowers and potted plants to beautify the sanctuary on Easter Day.

FOREST CHURCH NOTES

Sunday, April 27th, 1919.

10.30 A. M. Public worship with sermon.

11.45 A. M. Sunday School session.

6.45 P. M. Christian Endeavor service. Topic: "Christianity and the Toilers of America." Matt. 9:35-38. Missionary meeting.

7.30 P. M. Evening service with sermon.

Wednesday evening, prayer meeting.

We desire to thank our friends in the choir for the unusually fine Easter music which they sang at both services. All of the anthems were rendered in a manner that revealed thorough practice; and the fine work of the choir was highly appreciated by all present.

The Presbytery of New Castle met in Lewes on Monday and Tuesday of this week. Dr. McElmoyle's case was referred to a special Executive Commission with full Presbyterial powers.

Subscribe to the Victory Liberty Loan. The canvass is now in progress.

Trustees to Sell Property

Real Estate of the Board of Academy Trustees will be sold, it was decided at a meeting of the board in the office of D. W. Stevens Tuesday night. The property consists of two dwellings, one on Broad street, opposite the school buildings, and the other adjoining the postoffice. The board has owned the property for many years.

The Board of Academy Trustees is probably the most unique body in the State, and originated through an act of General Assembly in the early sixties, whereby the school buildings and the real estate mentioned above came into their possession, after the old Academy, which was a pay school, had disbanded and gone out of existence. The school buildings were left to the united districts of the town, and the other property was left for the purpose of keeping up the improvements on the same.

The board consists of seven members, who are self-appointed, has no governing body, and is responsible to no one; neither do the members have to render any account to any one.

A Middletown Guest

Mrs. C. A. Hoffecker had John A. Futerney of the Ninth Infantry, American Expeditionary Forces, for a visitor on Sunday. Futerney is a Russian boy whom Mrs. Hoffecker met at the Syracuse, N. Y., camp in August, 1917. In September of that year he was sent to France. In 1918 he was so badly gassed that he was in a hospital for months, fearing the loss of his sight.

In June of 1918 his leg was so badly injured by shrapnel, at Chateau-Thierry that he was in the hospital for months. Recently he was sent home on crutches, and has been in the hospital at Camp Meade. Now he has discarded the crutches and is able to walk with the aid of a cane.

Futerney is one of the boys with whom Mrs. Hoffecker has been corresponding for the past 18 months, and the first one of them to visit her in her home town.

MIDDLETOWN, DEL., APRIL 26th, 1919

"IF" OR "SUPPOSING"

By GEORGE ADE.

On October 1, 1918, you, being a wise man and having read with care the opinions of military experts, knew:

1. That the great war was going to last until far into the summer of 1919.

2. That the casualties among the American soldiers would be increasingly heavy up to the final moment of fighting.

3. That, as a result of the growing magnitude of the world struggle, the government of the United States would call upon us for at least three huge bond subscriptions during 1919.

If you believed otherwise you were in the minority, for the cabinets of all the nations united against Germany, and the bankers and the shipbuilders.

"Can You Be Patriotic When the Band's Not Playing?"—George Ade.

and the masters of food supplies thought they knew that Germany would stand out for many months.

Now then, to suppose a case. If some one had come to you on October 1 with a proposition to end the war within six weeks by a complete and overwhelming victory on condition that you would subscribe liberally for Victory bonds in the spring of 1919, you would have replied as follows:

"Say, end the war this fall and stop the killing and maiming of our boys, and put the kaiser out of business and compel Germany to accept our terms and let the American soldiers begin to head for home, and I'll pledge by last dollar for the loan that is needed to clean up the expenses."

That's how you felt on October 1, 1918, and now that all the miracles have come to pass, are you going to be grateful or forgetful?

You are now asked to help finance (by merely lending on favorable terms and not giving) the final and gigantic expenditures which brought victory months ahead of the schedule.

If we had lost the war, what would you be paying this spring and to whom? How's your memory? Did you feel certain, just a year ago today, that Germany could be prevented from dictating terms to the whole world?

How about a loyal parent who refuses to pay a doctor bill because the child gets well instead of dying?

When you tackle a big job do you stick to the finish, or do you go fishing and permit some more dependable man to come in and put on the roof and chimney?

Do you experience symptoms of morality only when the doctor is seated at the bedside?

When you start to go somewhere, do you travel four-fifths of the way and then flop by the wayside?

Can you be patriotic when the band is not playing?

We are setting up a big job, so don't queer your war record at the eleventh hour by being a quitter.

Roots, Herbs and Barks in Tonall, Can't be Beat "When it Comes to Fixing a Sick Person."

"I had what was supposed to be dropsy. I have farmed all my life. For years work was a drag to me," says George E. Sensenig, Gap, R. D. No. 2, Lancaster county, Pa.

"Now after taking four bottles of Tonall I can work on the farm with pleasure. My swelling and bloating have all gone. My wife uses it also and joins with me in praising its merits. We could not think of going without it in our home. The Roots, Herbs and Barks, which are in Tonall can't be beat, when it comes to fixing up a sick person with dropsy or stomach troubles."

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

When you want your Ford car repaired, insist always upon getting the genuine Ford Parts, made by the Ford Motor Company, in order to insure reliable quality. There are "spurious," "counterfeit," "imitation" parts made by outside concerns who have no regard for quality in material, so insist on your Garage or Repair Man furnishing you the genuine Ford Parts. All reliable garages may now buy the genuine Ford Parts from us—so there's no excuse for any one using the "bogus" parts. To be sure, bring your car to us for repairs or replacements.

What Makes the Difference?

One young man has definite ideas as to his conduct and responsibilities. He thinks ahead, decides upon his course and follows it single mindedly. He goes to the top as a matter of course. Another, with equal opportunity in every respect, drifts this way and that, with no purpose in mind other than to "have a good time." The Savings habit makes the difference.

IMPORTANT KIND OF POULTRY

Common Economic Classification Is Based Upon Adaptation to Certain Lines of Food.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The first step toward the increase of supplies of poultry products through the use of the type best suited to production is to get a correct understanding of type. In fowls, the most important kind of poultry, the common economic classification is based upon the adaptation of certain types to certain lines of food production. Three such distinct types are recognized—the egg type, the meat type and the dual-purpose type, which is commonly considered an intermediate of the other two, though in reality it is the primary type of which the others are modifications.

Because the smallest standard breeds are distinctly of the egg type, the largest breeds are good layers only under expert care, and the best known of the dual-purpose breeds are of medium size and weight, small size and great activity are commonly supposed to be characteristic of the egg type, large size and an indolent temperament are supposed to characterize the meat type, and medium size without either marked energy or great indolence is supposed to be characteristic of a mediocre dual-purpose type. These misconceptions arise from a too literal acceptance of the designation of a type as the definition of that type.

Not only do breed types tend to change but ideas of breeders as to the most desirable type for a breed change. In fact the breeders are rarely in full agreement as to the precise type which should be preferred, and consequently nearly every breeder of superior ability has his "strain," which while conforming to the general description of the standard presents distinctive peculiarities in points where a standard cannot be rigid. Such elasticity in the application of standards is, in the nature of the case, inevitable. It is not at variance with the purpose of standards in stock production but is in harmony with their function of securing general progress toward approved ideals.

First expert judgment proved correct by time

"A distinct advance in motor engineering" summed up expert opinion when the Perfected Valve-In-Head Motor of the Nash Six was first shown nineteen months ago. Now we know that this estimate was justified. The Nash motor has lived up to its promises. In the hands of users everywhere it has shown unusual power, economy and quietness.
